Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Litcham School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- raising any concerns with the subject leader, head of department or senior leadership team.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- the Head of School.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 school days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- write to the Head of School, stating your complaint/concern, all relevant details and how you may be contacted

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of School will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 15 school days

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- write to the Chair of Governors.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 school days

The appeal will be referred to:

- The Chair of Governors

It will be the responsibility of to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.

Additional details on the internal appeals process:

Not applicable.
